Still time to go for it! Seats still available for May 16 auction-musical event

NNI Goes For It on May 16 at the Embassy Suites-KCI and so should you. The evening begins at 6:00 p.m. with a bargain-filled silent auction, followed by dinner and the great music of Andrea Pope and Angelo Cilia. Here's a song title appetizer: The Impossible Dream from Man of La Mancha, Don't Rain on My Parade from Funny Girl, I'm Not That Girl from Wicked, You're the Top from Anything Goes.

Individual ticket prices have been reduced from $60 to $50, tables of 10 reduced from $600 to $500. Expect to find some great bargains on hundreds of auction items and count on the usual dazzling singing of Andrea and Angelo. But the clock is ticking, so make your reservations now for a great evening of music, friends and shopping on May 16 by calling NNI at 454-2000.

Until further notice, the monthly Northland Neighborhoods News is distributed only on the NNI Website (www.nni.org). This cost containment measure will remain in effect until the economy recovers. The Quarterly edition will continue to be published and distributed in both printed and online formats. We apologize for any inconvenience this causes our readers.

Increased animal control services begin May 1

Despite a difficult City budget, the KCMO Animal Control Division has found a way to provide increased animal control services in the Northland. Beginning May 1, two officers will provide overnight services (from 9:30 p.m. to 7 a.m., Monday through Saturday). A new officer will be assigned to NNI, taking the place of Robert Shafford, who will move to overnight duty. Dispatching service will switch to KCPD. According to Animal Control Supervisor Patrick Egberuare, this move will further improve animal control service. For emergency service during non-covered hours, citizens should continue to call 911 and the call will be routed to Animal Control.

Bridging The Gap

Bridging The Gap's (BTG) annual EarthWalk and EarthFest returns to midtown Kansas City this year. This popular annual event takes place Saturday, May 9 at Theis Park (also known as Volker Park) at Emanuel Cleaver Boulevard and Oak Street. to live more "green" (and often save money, too!). Individuals or groups may participate as walkers, or volunteer to help run the event! For information about the event, see www.earthdaykc.org. To volunteer, call Laura O'Brien at 816-561-1061, ext. 109 or email lobrien@bridgingthegap.org. Many volunteer positions are still available, so please call Laura O'Brien at 816-561-1061, ext. 109 if you'd like to sign up!
